1. Heard.

2. This petition has been filed for a writ of mandamus directing the opposite party nos.2 and 3 to secure/protect the peaceful matrimonial life of the petitioners and not to harass the petitioners.

3. It is stated by learned counsel for the petitioners that both the petitioners are major and have married with each other out of their own free will on 14.12.2024 as per Hindu rites and rituals at Arya Samaj Shivpuri Kamta, Chinhat, Lucknow. In this regard, reliance has been placed on the marriage certificate as well as High Schools Certificates as proof of age annexed as Annexure Nos.1 and 3, respectively, to the writ petition. They are enjoying and living peaceful matrimonial life. There is no first information report lodged against the petitioners till date. However, opposite party no. 4, being annoyed with their marriage, are creating hindrance in order to disturb their matrimonial life with the help of police authority of concerned police station, therefore, they have approached this Court, for redressal of their grievances, by filing the present writ petition.

4. Learned counsel for the petitioners has relied upon the law laid down in paragraph 17 of Lata Singh Vs. State of U.P. and another, 2006 (5) SCC 475 which reads as under:-

"17..... We, therefore, direct that the administration/police authorities throughout the country will see to it that if any boy or girl who is a major undergoes inter-caste or inter-religious marriage with a woman or man who is a major, the couple is not harassed by anyone nor subjected to threats or acts of violence, and anyone who gives such threats or harasses or commits acts of violence either himself or at his instigation, is taken to task by instituting criminal proceedings by the police against such persons and further stern action is taken against such persons as provided by law."

5. The petitioners have also pleaded for protection under Article 21 of the Constitution of India which guarantees liberty to lead life of their own with dignity.

6. The petition is, therefore, disposed of with a direction to the opposite parties not to interfere in peaceful life and liberty of the petitioners in any manner.
