Order

17/11/2025

On the last four occasions, time has been sought and time was granted, specifically making it clear in the order dated 24.09.2025 that if the counsel is not present to argue the matter today, appeal will be dismissed for non-prosecution.

In spite of the said order, a request is again being made on behalf of the appellant for an adjournment.

In view of the previous order dated 24.09.2025, this appeal is dismissed for non-prosecution.

Pending applications(s), if any, shall also stand dismissed.
