'i In reference to the above cited subject, I have the honour to submit that in pursuance of Order dated 08.09.2025 passed by the Hon'ble High Court, the complainant Ruksana Begum and Abid (Injured person) and accused, namely, Anisha, Adil, Aasib @ Asaf Aasif, Sahib, Raju, Shahid, Nafees @ Nafis, Salauddin @ Sallam, Javed Guardian and C/o Anisha and Saiba @ Sahiba and Investigating Officer PSI Tejvir, Faridabad P.S Dhauj, Faridabad appeared before the under-signed and their statements have been recorded. The complainant, namely, Ruksana Begum and Abid (Injured Person) and accused persons, namely, Anisha, Adil, Aasib @ Asaf Aasif, Sahib, Raju, Shahid, Nafees @ Nafis, Salauddin @ Sallam, Javed Guardian and C/o Anisha and Saiba @ Sahiba suffered a statement to the effect that they have settled their dispute amicably with the intervention of elders and respectable persons of the society. iv. As per the statement of Investigating Officer PSI Tejvir, Faridabad P.S Dhauj, Faridabad, No proclaimed offender/person proceedings are pending against any

FIR has been lodged against 10 persons, and final report has been filed against 10 accused persons, namely, Anisha, Adil, Aasib @ Asaf Aasif, Sahib, Raju, Shahid, Nafees @ Nafis, Salauddin @ Sallam, Javed Guardian and C/o Anisha and Saiba @ Sahiba. Apart from the complainant Ruksana and injured Abid, there is no other affected party.

v. The under-signed is of the considered view that the compromise appears to be genuine and has been reached at voluntarily, without any pressure or undue influence between the complainant, namely, Ruksana Begum and Abid (Injured person) and accused persons, namely, Anisha, Adil, Aasib @ Asaf Aasif, Sahib, Raju, Shahid, Nafees @ Nafis, Salauddin @ Sallam, Javed Guardian and C/o Anisha and Saiba @ Sahiba. Further, they have made their statements voluntarily and without any threat, inducement, coercion or undue influence. Hence, from the careful scrutiny of material on record and upon reasonable inquiry from the parties in this regard, the compromise appears to be genuine and voluntary.

4. Learned counsel for respondents No.2 and 3 admits the factum of parties having compromised and states that he has no objection in case the impugned order is quashed.

5. Similarly, learned State counsel has stated that he has no objection in case the impugned order is quashed as the parties have compromised the matter amicably.

6. I have heard learned counsel for the parties and have carefully gone through the records of the case.

7. This Court and Apex Court has repeatedly dealt with the issue of exercise of jurisdiction under Section 482 of the Code to quash proceeding in non-compoundable offences in the cases of Gian Singh vs. State of Punjab and another, 2012 (10) SCC 303, Kulwinder Singh & others vs.

State of Punjab & another, 2007 (3) RCR (Criminal) 1052 and Ram Gopal and another vs. State of Madhya Pradesh, 2021 (4) R.C.R. (Criminal) 322 (Criminal Appeal No.1489 of 2012 decided on 29th of September, 2021).

The proposition of law that emerges from the aforesaid decisions rendered by Apex Court and this Court is:

- (a) Power u/s 482 Cr.P.C. vested with this Court is much wider and is unaffected by Section 320 of the Code.*
- (b) However, wider the power greater the caution.*
- (c) The underlining principle while exercising such power is that it can be invoked to quash the proceedings recognizing compromise between the parties in the matters which are overwhelmingly and predominantly of civil character like commercial transactions or arising out of matrimonial relationship or family disputes.*
- (d) The said power is not to be exercised in the prosecutions involving heinous and serious offences of mental depravity or offences like murder, rape, dacoity etc. as such offences are not private in nature and have a serious impact on society.*
- (e) Section 482 Cr.P.C. casts duty upon the High Court to advance interest of justice as well. It is in recognition of this duty casted upon the High Court, that Apex Court held that the High Court would not refuse to quash FIR under Section 307 merely because FIR finds mention thereof. High Court can assess nature of injuries sustained, whether such injuries inflicted on vital/delicate parts of the body/nature of weapons used etc.*
- (f) Such exercise at the hands of High Court would be permissible only after the evidence is collected after investigation and charge-sheet is filed/ charges framed during the trial. Such exercise cannot be carried out while the matter is still under investigation.*
- (g) While quashing FIR in non-compoundable offences even which are private in nature, High Court is required to consider antecedents of the accused, conduct of the accused and whether he was absconding or whether he has managed the complainant to enter into a compromise.*

8. Thus, keeping in view the aforesaid facts and circumstances, this Court is of the considered opinion that it is a fit case to exercise jurisdiction vested u/s 528 of BNS, 2023 to quash the FIR as :-

- (i) Putting a quietus to the proceedings will bring peace and tranquility amongst parties & will accordingly further the cause of substantial justice.*
- (ii) The offences alleged are primarily of private nature.*

- (iii) The parties have compromised.
- (iv) As per the report received the compromise is said to be voluntary in its nature.
- (v) Complainant/victim is reported to have entered into compromise on his own volition.

9 Consequently, the petition is allowed. FIR No.374 dated 21.12.2022 under Sections 148, 149, 323, 341 and 506 of IPC, registered at Police Station Dhauj, Disatrick Faridabad and all consequent proceedings arising therefrom, on the basis of compromise dated 29.8.2025, are, hereby, quashed qua the petitioners.
