3. Pursuant to the aforesaid order, report dated 24.10.2025 from Judicial Magistrate Ist Class, Ludhiana has been received, which is taken on record.

As per the report, the Trial Court has recorded as follows:-

'(i) In the present case, there are only two accused namely Kuldeep Singh and Hridai Pal Singh in this case.

(ii) There is only one complainant in this case and he has been arrayed as the respondent in the petition.

(iii) No accused is absconding or declared proclaimed offender person in any case. Compromise has been effected between both the parties valid and genuine. From the statements of the parties recorded by undersigned, it comes out on record that the parties have compromised the matter with their free consent, sweet will, without any threat, pressure or undue influence and it is genuine.'

4. Learned counsel for respondent No.2/complainant admits the factum of parties having compromised and states that he has no objection in case the impugned order is quashed.

5. Similarly, learned State counsel has stated that she has no objection in case the impugned order is quashed as the parties have compromised the matter amicably.

6. I have heard learned counsel for the parties and have carefully gone through the records of the case.

7. This Court and Apex Court has repeatedly dealt with the issue of exercise of jurisdiction under Section 482 of the Code to quash proceeding in non-compoundable offences in the cases of Gian Singh vs. State of Punjab and another, 2012 (10) SCC 303, Kulwinder Singh & others vs. State of Punjab & another, 2007 (3) RCR (Criminal) 1052 and Ram Gopal and another vs. State of Madhya Pradesh, 2021 (4) R.C.R. (Criminal) 322 (Criminal Appeal No.1489 of 2012 decided on 29th of September, 2021).

The proposition of law that emerges from the aforesaid decisions rendered by Apex Court and this Court is:

- (a) Power u/s 482 Cr.P.C. vested with this Court is much wider and is unaffected by Section 320 of the Code.*
- (b) However, wider the power greater the caution.*
- (c) The underlining principle while exercising such power is that it can be invoked to quash the proceedings recognizing compromise between the parties in the matters which are overwhelmingly and predominantly of civil character like commercial transactions or arising out of matrimonial relationship or family disputes.*
- (d) The said power is not to be exercised in the prosecutions involving heinous and serious offences of mental depravity or offences like murder, rape, dacoity etc. as such offences are not private in nature and have a serious impact on society.*
- (e) Section 482 Cr.P.C. casts duty upon the High Court to advance interest of justice as well. It is in recognition of this duty casted upon the High Court, that Apex Court held that the High Court would not refuse to quash FIR under Section 307 merely because FIR finds mention thereof. High Court can assess nature of injuries sustained, whether such injuries inflicted on vital/delicate parts of the body/nature of weapons used etc.*
- (f) Such exercise at the hands of High Court would be permissible only after the evidence is collected after investigation and charge-sheet is filed/ charges framed during the trial. Such exercise cannot be carried out while the matter is still under investigation.*
- (g) While quashing FIR in non-compoundable offences even which are private in nature, High Court is required to consider antecedents of the accused, conduct of the accused and whether he was absconding or whether he has managed the complainant to enter into a compromise.*

8. Thus, keeping in view the aforesaid facts and circumstances, this Court is of the considered opinion that it is a fit case to exercise jurisdiction vested u/s 528 of BNS, 2023 to quash the FIR as :-

- (i) Putting a quietus to the proceedings will bring peace and tranquility amongst parties & will accordingly further the cause of substantial justice.*
- (ii) The offences alleged are primarily of private nature.*
- (iii) The parties have compromised.*
- (iv) As per the report received the compromise is said to be voluntary in its nature.*
- (v) Complainant/victim is reported to have entered into compromise on his own volition.*

9 Consequently, the petition is allowed. Complaint bearing no.COMI 253/15 titled Balbir Singh v. Kuldeep Singh and others under Sections 420/465/467/468/ 471 and 120-B of IPC, pending before the Court of Judicial Magistrate Ist Class, Ludhiana alongwith summoning order dated 23.5.2019 (Annexure P-2), and all consequent proceedings arising therefrom, on the basis of 8.9.2025 (Annexure P-4), are, hereby, quashed qua the petitioners.
