Sharif, Teshil Roorkee, District Haridwar, and two rooms and three shops were constructed by his late father during his lifetime which has come to the share of the petitioner. It is alleged that the private respondents are having an evil eye on the property of the petitioner which is in the vicinity of Haridwar/Dehradun – Delhi Expressway. It is alleged that on the night on 26.07.2022, respondent Nos. 5 to 9 forcibly put double lock on the shops of the petitioner. It is further alleged that the private respondents are hand in gloves and are pressurizing the petitioner to handover the possession of the house and shops to them or else he will be implicated in the false criminal case. Petitioner submits that he is facing enormous pressure and he along-with his family members, seriously apprehend threat to their life and limb, at the hands of the private respondents, and hence he is before this Court praying for protection.

3) Learned Deputy Advocate General for the State submits that the respondent Nos. 1 to 3 have no hesitation in ensuring the safety and security of the petitioner and his family members, and he further assures the Court that no harm will come to the petitioner or any of his family members.
