HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE BISWAJIT PALIT

Order

23.02.2026

Learned counsel Mr. Hare Krishna Bhowmik, is present for the petitioner.

2. It is fairly submitted by the learned counsel that as per order the matter was sent to mediation for settlement of the dispute amongst the parties. Accordingly, the matter was taken up for settlement through mediation and in the mediation the dispute of the parties has been settled with the following terms and conditions:-

"TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF SETTLEMENT

1) That, both the parties have filed mutual divorce petition seeking permanent dissolution of marriage bearing case No. T. S. (DIV) 05 of 2026 before the Judge, Family Court, Sonamura, Sepahijala District, Tripura.

2) That, both the parties agreed to dissolve their marriage under certain terms and conditions and accordingly the husband petitioner agreed to pay Rs.3,00,000/- (Rupees Three Lakhs) to the wife Farzana Akhtar as permanent alimony and Rs.3,00,000/-(Rupees Three Lakhs) will be fixed deposited in the name of his minor daughter namely Nusrat Nuraiya in Tripura Gramin Bank, Sonamura Branch vide Account No. 8034010030232 till she attains majority.

3) That, the husband Jasim Miah will deposit ₹5,800/- (Rupees Five thousand and Eight Hundred) within the 10th day of every English Calendar in the Account No. 8034010030232 lying in Tripura Gramin Bank, Sonamura Branch under Sepahijala District for the maintenance of his daughter till she gets major.

4) That, on attaining majority the daughter namely Nusrat Nuraiya shall have the right to stay either with her father or mother at her own choice.

5) That, since the matter in dispute has been settled amicably by the parties the petitioner husband Jasim Miah shall no further proceed with the Crl. Rev. Petition 63 of 2025 filed by him before the Hon'ble High Court and thus will withdraw the said case.

6) That, both the parties agreed that they have no further dispute among them.

Both the parties entered into present agreement/settlement without any pressure, coercion, or undue influence of the same and thus they put their signature in the Agreement as below.

Copy of this Agreement is, given to the parties."

Accordingly, learned counsel urged for disposal of this case.

3. The present petitioner has challenged the judgment and order dated 15.09.2025 passed by the learned Judge, Family Court, Sonamura, Sepahijala District, Tripura in connection with Criminal Misc. No. 34/2024 in a proceeding under Section 125 of the Cr.P.C., 1973. The operative portion of the said order is as follows:-

"79. Consequently, the petition under Section 144 of the Bharatiya Nagarik Suraksha Sanhita, 2023 (corresponding to Section 125 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973), is allowed. The Opposite Party is directed to pay Rs.8,000/- per month to Petitioner No.1 and Rs.10,000/- per month to Petitioner No.2 as maintenance, payable by the 7th day of each month. Petitioner No.2 shall be entitled to receive maintenance until she attains the legally permissible age. The maintenance shall be payable from the date of filing of this petition. Any amount already paid by the Opposite Party under interim orders or otherwise shall be duly adjusted against arrears. The Opposite Party is further directed to clear the arrears within one month from the date of this order, failing which the petitioners shall be entitled to recover the same through the process of law. "

Challenging that order the revision petition was filed, as stated above.

4. However, since the matter has been resolved through mediation and the report is accordingly forwarded by the I/C Coordinator Mediation centre of this court, so nothing survives for further adjudication of this matter and accordingly, this present case stands disposed of in pursuance of the mediation agreement arrived at between the parties.

5. Thus, in view of the settlement arrived at amongst the parties, the order passed by the learned Judge, Family Court is accordingly interfered with and stands modified to the extent of terms and condition arrived at amongst the parties by way of mediation.

6. Accordingly, this present case stands disposed of in terms of the settlement arrived through mediation. Communicate this order to both the parties of this proceeding.

Also send down the record to the learned trial court along with a copy of this order.

Pending application(s), if any, also stand disposed of.
