...for the Alleged Contemnor no. 2

1. Learned Advocate representing the petitioner is present.
2. The alleged contemnor nos. 1 and 2 are represented by the learned Advocates.
3. It is said by the learned Advocate for the alleged contemnors that the appellant/convict has already been released from the concerned Correctional Home on 10.09.2026.

4. A photocopy of written communication between ADG & IG, Correctional Home Services, West Bengal and the Superintendent, Presidency Correctional Home, Alipore, dated 10.09.2026, is handed over before this Court, which indicates that the appellant/convict, Madan Malakar, has been released after remitting the unexpired portion of the sentence of imprisonment for life.

5. The said communication, which is handed over on behalf of the alleged contemnors, be taken on record.

6. Accordingly, the contempt application being CPAN 564 of 2026 is hereby dropped.
