In the matter of: Tejas Kannoja @ Teja Kannogia.
..... petitioner.

Mr. Sabir Ahmed,
Mr. Dhiman Banerjee,
Mr. Quazi Ezaz Ahmed,
....For the Petitioner.

Mr. Pritam Roy,
Ms. Ananya Chakraborty,
..... for the State.

Mr. Shraman Sarkar,
Mr. Ayaan Bhattacharyya,
..... for the O.P. No.2

1. Report as directed to be filed by the State is placed before this Court and be kept with the record.
2. The present revisional application was filed for quashing of the said proceeding being BGR-No.1846 of 2022 arising out of Maheshtala P.S. case No.208 of 2022 dated 7.5.2022 under Sections 498A/406 of the IPC, which was lodged against the present petitioner.
3. The instant matter pertains to joint compromise application filed by both the parties in connection with proceeding pending before the learned Additional Judicial Magistrate, Alipore, South 24 Parganas initiated at the instance of the opposite party no.2. The applicant no.2 lodged the complaint against the present petitioner under Sections 376/417/406/326 of the I.P.C on the allegation that in the month of October 2019 she came with acquaintance with the applicant no.1 through social media. The applicant no.2 was then a married lady with one child of 5 years old and tried to get rid from her first husband. They obtained mutual divorce.

4. The record further reveals that the O.P. no.2 also filed a complaint against the petitioner and his family member under Sections 448/323/354/195A/509/34 of the IPC and they are facing trial.

5. The third complaint lodged by O.P. no.2 under Sections 498A/406 being Maheshtala Police Station Case No.208/2022 dated 7.5.2022 and the instant application was filed for quashing of that proceeding.

6. After filing the aforesaid complaint the applicant no.2 realised and the dispute is amicably settled.

7. On perusal of the report submitted on behalf of State as well as joint compromise petition filed before this Court by the parties, it is evident that parties have settled the disputes amicably and prayed before this Court on affidavit to allow the application for passing appropriate order effectuating the compromise arrived at by and between the parties.

8. Considering the facts and circumstances, since the instant revisional application has been filed to quash the charges under Section 498A/406 of the IPC against the petitioner and in view of the compromise arrived at between the parties with regard to the complaint, this Court is inclined to allow the prayer since it would be otherwise a futile exercise to allow the proceeding to continue further since passing an order of conviction would be bleak and remote after the parties have settled their dispute amicably.

9. Accordingly, the revisional application being CRR 2675 of 2022 stands allowed and entire the proceeding pending before the learned Additional Chief Judicial Magistrate, Alipore, 24 Parganas(South) being BGR-No.1846 of 2022 arising out of Mashshtala P.S. case no.208 of 2022 is hereby quashed against the petitioner.

10. All parties shall act on the server copies of this order duly downloaded from the official website of this Court.
