...for the petitioner

This application under Article 227 of the Constitution of India is at the instance of the plaintiff praying for a direction upon the learned Judge, 6th Bench, City Civil Court at Calcutta, to dispose of the interlocutory application filed in Title Suit No. 1982 of 2019 expeditiously.

Learned advocate appearing for the petitioner submits that the petitioner filed the suit for eviction under the provisions of Section 6 of the West Bengal Premises Tenancy Act, 1997. In the said suit the opposite-party herein filed an application under Order 7 Rule 11 and applications under Order 39 Rule 1 and 2 of the Civil Procedure Code and an application under Section 7(2) of the 1997 Act. She further submits that the said applications are otherwise ready for hearing.

In view of the order sought and proposed to be passed, there is no necessity to direct issuance of any notice upon the opposite party. However, the learned advocate-on-record of the petitioner shall be obliged to forward a copy of this application along with a server copy of this order, upon the opposite party or upon the learned advocate representing the opposite party before the learned trial judge forthwith.

In the light of the submission made by the learned advocate appearing for the petitioner, this revisional application stands disposed of by requesting the learned Judge, 6th Bench, City Civil Court at Calcutta to take up the hearing of the application under Order 7 Rule 11 of the Civil Procedure Code on the next date fixed, i.e., on September 24, 2026, if the same is otherwise ready for hearing and make an endeavour to dispose of the same as expeditiously as possible, preferably within a period of four weeks from the next date fixed, without granting any unnecessary adjournment to either of the parties.

After disposal of the application under Order 7 Rule 11 of the Civil Procedure Code, the learned trial judge shall make an endeavour to dispose of the other applications as expeditiously as possible and shall make an endeavour to dispose of Title Suit No. 1982 of 2019 expeditiously without granting any unnecessary adjournment to either of the parties keeping in mind that the suit is pending since 2019.
