..for the State

Learned advocate appearing on behalf of the petitioner submits that a civil dispute has been given the flavor of a criminal proceeding and as such, prays for anticipatory bail.

Learned advocate appearing for the State submits that it is the present petitioner who represent himself as owner and received money for selling of a property. So far as the prosecution case is concerned, the ownership which was represented therein was on the basis of forged and fake documents.

Having considered the materials which reflects production of forged documents being the basis of selling his property, I am of the opinion this is not a fit case for granting anticipatory bail.

The application for anticipatory bail, being CRM (A) 2627 of 2026, is, thus, dismissed.

Memo of evidence submitted by the learned advocate appearing for the State be kept with the record.

Urgent photostat certified copy of this order, if applied for, be supplied to the parties upon compliance with all requisite formalities.
