CORAM:

HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE RAHUL BHARTI, JUDGE

ORDER
21.07.2026

1. Petitioner does not have the luxury of maintaining a supervisory petition under article 227 of the Constitution of India to assail cognizance taking order passed by the Judicial Magistrate, 1st Class Dangiwacha, Baramulla in a criminal complaint initiated by the respondent by reference to commission of offence under section 138 of the Negotiable Instruments Act, 1881, as such this present petition is not entertained without prejudice to the right of the petitioner to opt for proper remedy enabling this Court to deal with ongoing criminal complaint which surely cannot be dealt with by this Court on the supervisory side jurisdiction under article 227 of the Constitution of India.

2. Dismissed as such along with connected CM.
