The petitioner has been made accused in connection with Chandrapura P. S. case no. 45 of 2026 instituted under Section 103 (1) and 238 of BNS, 2023.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the allegation against the petitioner is that the petitioner has committed murder of Baby Devi and threw her dead body in the river and caused the disappearance of the evidence of the murder. It is submitted that the allegation against the petitioner is false and except confessional statement of the petitioner and the co-accused persons, there is no material in the record to implicate the petitioner in this case. It is next submitted that the petitioner has been in jail custody since 25/04/2026, as mentioned in para 1 of this bail application. It is next submitted by learned counsel for the petitioner that the petitioner is ready and willing to co-operate with the trial of the case and undertakes not to annoy or disturb the informant or the other witness of the case in any manner during trial of the case, hence, the petitioner may be admitted to bail.

Learned Addl. P.P. opposed the prayer for bail.

Considering submissions of learned counsels and the facts as stated above, I am inclined to release the petitioner on bail. Hence, the court below is directed to release the petitioner on bail on furnishing bail bond of Rs. 25,000/- (Rupees Twenty Five Thousand) with two sureties of the like amount each to the satisfaction of learned ACJM, Bermo at Tenughat in connection with Chandrapura P.
