CORAM:

ORDER
08.07.2026

Order No.

01.

1. Heard learned counsel for the respective parties.
2. Instant petition under Section 482 BNSS is filed for pre-arrest bail of the petitioners in connection with Satyabadi P.S Case No. 68 of 2026 corresponding to G.R. Case No.190 of 2026 pending in the file of learned J.M.F.C, Satyabadi on the grounds stated therein.
3. Perused the FIR as at Annexure-1. A copy of the F.I.R. lodged from the side of the petitioners is submitted to the Court by Mr. Mohapatra, learned counsel appearing for them. It is claimed that the dispute is in between two villages. The reason behind the lodging of the F.I.R. is revealed therein but with a counter allegation by the petitioners. The report reveals that there was theft of some articles from a temple and in that connection, the alleged incident took place. Mr. Mohapatra, learned counsel would submit that there was pelting of stones against each other, and lodging of the F.I.Rs by both the sides. In fact, it is made to understand that the villagers exchanged verbal abuses and pelted stones at each other, causing injuries. It is informed to the Court that no one received any serious injury as a result of the mischief committed. Considering the submissions as above and objection of the State, this Court is inclined to direct the petitioners to surrender before the learned court below for being released with conditions, though not in favour of entertaining their bail plea but with a condition that such release would be subject to absence of any serious injury received by anyone from the side of the informant and accordingly, it is ordered.

4. Accordingly, it is ordered.

5. In the result, the ABLAPL stands disposed of. It is directed that in the event the petitioners surrender before the learned J.M.F.C, Satyabadi in connection with corresponding to G.R. Case No.190 of 2026 within a period of fifteen days from today, they shall be released on bail subject to them furnishing bail bonds of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees ten thousand) each with one solvent surety for the like amount each to the satisfaction of the learned court below, which shall be at liberty to impose such other suitable conditions as deemed just and proper in the facts and circumstances of the case. It is further directed that the petitioners shall furnish an undertaking at the P.S. not to involve themselves in such other mischief in future. As further directed, such release of the petitioners shall be given effect to only upon verification and absence of any grievous injury received by any of the victims of assault.
