Order on Board

13/07/2026

1. After arguing for sometime, learned counsel for the petitioner seeks permission to withdraw the present writ petition with liberty to approach before the Board of Revenue and raise objection afresh and in such eventuality, the Board of Revenue may be directed to decide the same in accordance with law, on its own merits.
2. In view of the submissions made by learned counsel for the petitioner, the present writ petition is dismissed as withdrawn with the aforesaid liberty, however, the Board of Revenue is directed that in the eventuality of filing the objection by the petitioner, it should be decided in accordance with law, on its own merits after providing opportunity of hearing to the parties.
