PC.:-

1. The learned advocates for the appellants and the respondents are present. The learned advocate for the appellants seeks leave to withdraw the appeals on instructions. Leave is granted. The appeals are disposed of as withdrawn.

2. The appellants are entitled to a refund of the court fees as per the Rules. It is pointed out that the name of Reliance General Insurance Company Limited has been changed to IndusInd General Insurance Company Limited. The learned advocate for the appellants has filed the Certificates of Incorporation pursuant to the change of name. The same are taken on record and marked 'X' in each case for identification.

3. The balance amount, along with the accrued interest and costs, shall be paid to the claimants. The Registry is directed to refund the Court fees in the new name, i.e., IndusInd General Insurance Company Limited.
