CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE SURAJ GOVINDARAJ

ORAL ORDER

1. Petitioner, wife of Waseem Pasha - CTP 17866 (detenue)
is before this Court seeking for the following reliefs:

"a. Direct Respondent No.2 to release the Petitioner's husband, Waseem @ Waseem Pasha CTP No.17866, currently lodged in Mysuru Central Prison, on general parole for a period of 90 days, to enable him to take care of his mother, who is a senior citizen suffering from various health ailments including a recent stroke, and who has been advised complete bed rest and to avoid any stressful activities that may worsen her condition.

b. Pass any other order(s) which this court may deem fit and proper under the facts and circumstances of the case, in the interest of justice."

2. The detenue has been convicted for the offence under Section 302 read with Section 34 of IPC in SC No.220 of 2012 by FTC-IV, Mysuru, for imprisonment for life vide judgment and sentence dated 28.05.2013. The detenue has been incarcerated for a period of 13 years, 11 months, 11 days as on 15.12.2025. The detenue applied for parole on the ground that his mother had a cerebrovascular accident (stroke) and is undergoing medical care. The said request having been rejected by the respondent, the petitioner is before this Court seeking for the aforesaid reliefs.
3. A perusal of the papers indicates that there is certificate issued by the Mysore Hospital, certifying that the mother of the detenue has suffered a cerebrovascular accident. The imprisonment certificate indicates that the detenue has been incarcerated for about 13 years, 11 months, 11 days and he has been granted parole on several earlier occasions for a period of 1 year 11 months 1 day, during which period, there is no particular complaint against the detenue. The conduct of the detenue has been satisfactory and there has been no complaint against his conduct.

4. In that view of the matter, considering that the detenue has served more than 14 years as on date and had been granted parole on several occasions earlier, the application for parole submitted by the detenue could not have been rejected in the manner as done.
5. As such, I pass the following:
