THIS RFA IS FILED U/S.96 OF CPC, AGAINST THE

OS.NO.11278/2006 ON THE FILE OF THE XXIV ADDL.CITY
CIVIL AND SESSIONS JUDGE, BANGALORE CITY, DISMISSING THE SUIT FOR DECLARATION AND INJUNCTION.

THIS APPEAL HAVING BEEN HEARD AND RESERVED FOR JUDGMENT ON 05TH MARCH, 2026 AND COMING ON FOR PRONOUNCEMENT THIS DAY, THE COURT PRONOUNCED THE FOLLOWING:

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE ANANT RAMANATH HEGDE

CAV JUDGMENT

This first appeal is under Section 96 of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908. The plaintiff whose suit in O.S No.11278/2006 for declaration and injunction is dismissed in terms of the judgment and decree dated 13.07.2018 is in appeal.

2. The suit is filed in respect of immovable properties described as sites bearing No.3, 4 and 5, V.P.Khata No.109 and 109/A, having Assessment No.3/3, situated at Lottegollahalli Village, Kasaba Hobli, Bangalore North Taluk, measuring East-West: 95 feet and North-South: 45 feet, totally measuring 4275 square feet with a shed and a compound wall built around it. The boundaries are described as under:

East : Property No.6

West: Property No.2

North :Road

South :Sterling Apartments property

3. The plaintiff seeks declaration that the registered sale deed dated 24.09.2004 executed by defendants No.1 to 7 in favour of defendant No.10-GPA holder of defendants No.8 and 9 is illegal and not binding on the plaintiff.

4. In addition, the plaintiff also seeks declaration of title to declare him as the owner in possession of the suit schedule properties. The plaintiff also sought injunction against the defendants from interfering with his peaceful possession and enjoyment of suit schedule properties and a restraint order against defendant No.10 from alienating the suit schedule properties.

5. This case was heard along with RFAs No.1514/2018, 1515/2018, 1517/2018, 1518/2018, 1519/2018 and 1520/2018. During the hearing, the counsel appearing for both sides submitted that, certain transactions evidenced in the registered sale deeds filed in RFA No.1514/2018 arising from O.S No.11276/2006 are not in dispute. Thus, while narrating the facts of the case, the Court has also taken note of the transactions evidenced in O.S No.11276/2006, as the parties to the proceeding are claiming right over the sites formed in Sy.No.3/3 in all the cases referred to above.

6. The property bearing Survey No.3/3 measuring 1 acre 13 guntas in Lottegollahalli Village originally belonged to Hanumanthappa. Said Hanumanthappa had two wives namely; Byamma and Thayamma. It appears that both marriages are valid and from both wives, Hanumanthappa had children and among them, a son from first wife Byamma was named as Narasimhaiah and a son from second wife Thayamma was also named as Narasimhaiah.

7. The plaintiff claims that there was an oral partition in the family during lifetime of Hanumanthappa and in the said oral partition, Narasimhaiah son of Hanumanthappa from first wife Byamma was allotted 1 acre 13 guntas of land in Survey No.3/3. The plaintiff claims that said 1 acre 13 guntas of land in Survey No.3/3 was later sold by Narasimhaiah-son of Byamma to Muniswamappa under a registered sale deed dated 11.12.1956.

8. The plaintiff claims that Muniswamappa sold Survey No.3/3 measuring 1 acre 13 guntas to one Ranganayakamma under a registered sale deed 07.03.1957 and Ranganayakamma in turn sold the land to Narasimhaiah, the son from second wife Thayamma under a registered sale deed dated 07.08.1963.

9. The plaintiff also contends that, Narasimhaiah son of second wife Thayamma sold the entire 1 acre 13 guntas in Sy.No.3/3 to Tirupathappa under a registered sale deed dated 08.08.1963 and said Tirupathappa formed several sites in 1 acre 13 guntas and retained few sites and sold few sites.

10. The plaintiff claims that, after the demise of Tirupathappa, his two sons T. Venkatesh and T. Rangaswamy succeeded to the estate of Tirupathappa and the aforementioned two sons executed a power of attorney in favour of Srinivasa Murthy. The power of attorney holder Srinivasa Murthy, sold the suit properties to the plaintiff on 06.12.2004.

11. Thus, the plaintiff claims title and possession over the aforementioned properties and further alleges that the registered sale deed dated 24.09.2004 executed by defendants No.1 to 7 in favour of defendants No.8 and 9 is not binding on the plaintiff.

12. It is the contention of the plaintiff that, defendants No.1 to 7, who are the legal representatives of deceased Narasimhaiah from the second wife did not have any right, title and interest over the properties as Narasimhaiah-the son from second wife Thayamma had sold 1 acre 13 guntas in Sy. No.3/3 to Tirupathappa.

13. Defendants No.1 to 7, the vendors of defendants No.8 and 9 the purchasers, contested the suit.

14. The defendants/vendors contended that, Tirupathappa though purchased 1 acre 13 guntas in Sy.No.3/3 did not own and possess the suit properties. Thirupathappa had sold all the sites formed by him. Defendants No.1 to 7 inherited certain sites formed by Narasimhaiah, the son from the second wife of Hanumanthappa, in 1 acre 2 guntas in Sy.No.3/3, and 37 guntas in Sy.No.3/2. And the sale transaction in favour of defendants No.8 and 9 is prior to the sale in favour of the plaintiff and prayed for dismissal of the suit.

15. The plaintiff claims title over the property based on the registered sale deed dated 06.12.2004 said to have been executed by general power of attorney holder of T.Venkatesh and T.Rangaswamy, who are the sons of late Tirupathappa.

16. The plaintiff has also challenged the earlier sale deed dated 24.09.2004 by defendants No.1 to 7 in favour of defendant No.10.

17. Defendants No.8 and 9 also took a similar stand.

18. The defendants having denied the plaintiff's case in toto have urged that the sale deed dated 24.09.2004 in favour of defendant No.10 is valid. In addition, it is urged that father of the plaintiff's vendor has disposed of sites No.3 and 4 to L.Narayanaswamy through registered sale deed dated 14.05.1971 and later, site No.5 is sold under a registered sale deed dated 05.05.1982 and purchaser from Tirupathappa has disposed of site No.3 on 25.04.1972 in favour of Smt Thimamma. Defendants No.8 and 9 took a stand that they purchased site Nos.4 and 5 measuring 2376 Sq. feet of lands from defendants No.1 to 7 under a registered sale deed dated 24.09.2004.

19. The Trial Court framed the following issues:

- "1. Whether plaintiff prove (sic) that he is absolute owner and in possession of the suit schedule property?
2. Whether the plaintiff proves that sale deed dated 24.09.2004 is null and void and the same is not binding on the plaintiff?

3. Whether the plaintiff proves interference of defendants?
4. Whether the plaintiff is entitled for relief of permanent injunction as sought in the plaint?
5. Whether the suit is properly valued and Court fee paid is sufficient?
6. What order or decree?"

20. In addition, the following additional issue is also framed.

Whether plaintiff is entitled for relief of declaration as prayed?

21. The Trial Court has held that the plaintiff failed to establish his title and his vendors' title and dismissed the suit. The Trial Court also held that the power of attorney is not proved.

22. The learned Senior Counsel appearing for the plaintiff/ appellant urged that, the Trial Court did not consider the case in proper perspective.

23. It is also urged that the suit being one for declaration of title and injunction, where the plaintiff and the contesting defendants claimed title over the property, it was incumbent upon the defendants to establish their title based on the evidence led, applying the test of preponderance of probability.

24. In addition, it is urged that the records produced by the plaintiff would demonstrate that the properties were acquired by Tirupathappa and later inherited by his two children T.Rangaswamy and T.Venkatesh. The plaintiff having acquired title of the property through the sale deed executed by power of attorney holder of T. Rangaswamy viz., Srinivas Murthy, has not only established possession of the property but also established the title.

25. It is further urged by the learned Senior Counsel appearing for the plaintiff/appellant that, the defendants have not established any records to show the formation of sites and layout by Narasimhaiah, the son from the second wife Thayamma. That being the position, the Trial Court could not have dismissed the suit of the plaintiff on the ground that the plaintiff has not produced the documents relating to formation of layout by Tirupathappa.

26. In the written submissions filed on behalf of the appellant, an attempt is made to identify the suit properties with reference to the boundaries referred to in various deeds marked as exhibits. A reference is also made to the extent of the property bearing Sy.No.3/3 mentioned in akarband marked at Ex.D.19. It is urged that the total extent of Sy.No.3/3 is 2 acre 5 guntas and total extent purchased under the sale deed dated 11.12.1956 is 1 acre 2 guntas and sale deed dated 08.08.1963 is 1 acre 13 guntas and if both extents are added, the total extent would be 2 acres 15 guntas which is more than 2 acre 5 guntas shown in the aakarbandh.

27. A reference is also made to 8 sale deeds executed by Tirupathappa from 1973 onwards to 1982.

28. Learned counsel appearing for the respondents would urge that, the plaintiff approached the Trial Court seeking a declaration of title and the burden lies on the plaintiff to prove his case and the Trial Court has rightly held that the plaintiff has not established the title over the properties and consequently dismissed the suit.

29. Learned counsel appearing for the respondents would also urge that the sale deed in favour of defendants No.8 and 9 is earlier to the sale deed executed in favour of the plaintiff. And the said sale deeds in favour of defendants No.8 and 9 is executed by the legal representatives of deceased

Narasimhaiah, the son from the second wife-Thayamma, who had purchased the property bearing Sy.No.3/3 measuring 1 acre 02 guntas from Byrappa under a registered sale deed dated 11.12.1956 (Ex.P3).

30. It is also urged that, 37 guntas in Survey No.3/2 and 31 guntas in Survey No.3/3 were sold to one Lingamma and she reconveyed the aforementioned properties to Narasimhaiah, the son from the second wife. The said transaction is evidenced in registered sale deed dated 07.04.1965 and would urge that the Trial Court is justified in dismissing the suit (Ex. D21).

31. The Court has considered the contentions raised at the Bar and perused the records.

32. The following points arise for consideration:

- (a) Whether the plaintiff/appellant establishes title and possession over the suit property based on the registered sale deed dated 06.12.2004?
- (b) Whether the defendants No.8 & 9/respondents No.8 & 9 establishes title and possession over the suit property based on the registered sale deed dated 24.09.2004?

(c) Whether the Trial Court is justified in dismissing the suit?

33. Records would reveal that, certain transactions covered by the registered sale deeds are not in dispute. The registered sale deed dated 24.09.1947, executed by Narasimhaiah, where he is shown to be the resident of Nagashettyhalli, pertains to 1 acre 2 guntas in Survey No.3/3. The said document marked as Exhibit-P11 reveals that Seetappa as the purchaser. Said Seetappa reconveyed the same property on 21.04.1950 in favour of Narasimhaiah, resident of Nagashettyhalli as can be seen from Exhibit-P12.

34. Subsequently, Narasimhaiah conveyed entire extent of 1 acre 2 guntas in Sy.No.3/3 in favour of Byrappa under a registered sale deed dated 28.05.1951, marked as Exhibit-P13.

35. It is further seen that, under a registered sale deed dated 12.05.1955, Narasimhaiah, the son of Hanumanthappa through his first wife, purchased 11 guntas of land from his father, Hanumanthappa, and the children born through father's second wife. The said document is marked as Exhibit P.14.

36. Under another registered sale deed dated 11.12.1956 at Exhibit P15, Narasimhaiah purchased 1 acre 2

guntas of land in Survey No.3/3 from the previous owner, Byrappa. In the said document, the purchaser is described as a resident of Nagashettyhalli.

37. Significantly, on the very same day, another registered sale deed, marked as Exhibit P3, came to be executed, wherein the vendor Narasimhaiah is described as the elder son of Hanumanthappa, and an extent of 1 acre and 13 guntas of land is conveyed in favour of Muniswamappa.

38. A comparative reading of these contemporaneous transactions lead to a reasonable inference that, the vendor in the sale deed dated 11.12.1956 (Exhibit P3) is Narasimhaiah, son of Hanumanthappa through his first wife Byamma, whereas the purchaser under the sale deed of the same date (marked as Exhibit P.15) is Narasimhaiah, son of Hanumanthappa through his second wife Thayamma.

39. It is also relevant to note that, the extent of 1 acre 13 guntas purchased by Muniswamappa under the registered sale deed dated 11.12.1956 was subsequently conveyed to Ranganayakamma under two registered sale deeds dated 07.03.1957 and 17.07.1958 marked as Exhibits- P4 and P17 respectively. (The sale deed dated 17.07.1958 is not marked as exhibit in the suit, however, as discussed supra, the said document is marked as Exhibit in O.S.No.11276/2006). Though the extent of the land in the two sale deeds referred to above add up to 1 acre 13½ guntas, same will not have any bearing on the final outcome of the suit as Muniswamappa who had purchased 1 acre 13 guntas from Narasimhaiah can convey only 1 acre 13 guntas through Ranganayakamma and Ranganayakamma in turn has sold only 1 acre 13 guntas to Narasimhaiah, the son from second wife under registered sale deed dated 07.08.1963. The said document is marked at Exhibiti-P.5.

40. Later on 08.08.1963 Narasimhaiah-the son from second wife Thayamma, sold 1 acre 13 guntas to Tirupathappa. In the said sale deed at Exhibit-P6, it is mentioned that seller is the son from the second wife of Hanumantappa.

41. Thus, it can be noticed that, the Survey No.3/3 was subject matter of several transactions starting from 1947 onwards. It is also evident that the transactions in respect of Survey No.3/3 referred to two different chunks of lands, one measuring 1 acre 2 guntas and another measuring 1 acre 13 guntas.

42. The land measuring 1 acre 2 guntas was purchased by Narasimhaiah, the son from the second wife-Thayamma under the sale deed executed by Byrappa on 11.12.1956. This portion of land was retained by Narasimhaiah, the son from the second wife. The another chunk of land measuring 1 acre 13 guntas was initially sold by Narasimhaiah, the son from the first wife and property was sold to Muniswamappa. As already noticed, Muniswamappa sold the same to Ranganayakamma and later, said property measuring 1 acre 13 guntas was purchased by Narasimhaiah, the son from the second wife and later sold to Tirupathappa who purchased under a registered sale deed dated 08.08.1963.

43. Admittedly, the plaintiff is claiming that the suit sites fall within 1 acre 13 guntas of land purchased by Tirupathappa. The defendants essentially claimed that Tirupathappa sold all the sites during his lifetime and his children did not inherit any sites in survey No.3/3 and the plaintiff cannot claim any right under the sale deeds executed by children of Tirupathappa.

44. The defendants also claim that the properties sold to defendants No.8 and 9 by defendants No.1 to 7 under the sale deeds which is under challenge, are the sites formed in survey No.3/3 measuring 1 acre 2 guntas or survey No.3/2 measuring 27 guntas which belong to Narasimhaiah the son from second wife Thayamma.

45. In the cross-examination, PW.1 has pleaded ignorance on many aspects on the premise that he is illiterate. Admittedly, no records are produced to show that the suit sites were standing in the name of Tirupathappa at the time of his death or in the names of his children when the sale deed was executed on 24.09.2004 when the property was sold by defendants No.1 to 7 in favour of defendant No.8 and the property as sold on the same day in favour of defendant No.10. At the same time, no record are produced to show that the properties were standing in the name of the executants of the sale deed dated 06.12.2004 in favour of the plaintiff.

46. The Trial Court has observed that, the plaintiff has not produced the records to show that, as on the date of the suit or as on the date of the execution of the sale deed in favour of the plaintiff, the properties were standing in the name of the plaintiff or his vendors respectively. The encumbrance certificate as on the date of the execution of the sale deed was also not in the name of the plaintiff's vendors. The khata was not standing in the name of the plaintiff's vendors. In addition, the Trial Court has also noticed that no documents are produced to hold that the plaintiff's vendors namely T. Rangaswamy and T. Venkatesh, the children of Tirupathappa inherited the properties after the demise of Tirupathappa.

47. The plaintiff claims that Tirupathappa had formed sites in Sy. No.3/3 measuring 1 acre and 13 guntas. This contention that the Tirupathappa formed sites is not in dispute. The plaintiff's claim that Tirupathappa sold certain sites and retained some is disputed by the defendants. The defendants contend that the Tirupathappa sold all the sites formed by him and when he died, his children did not inherit any sites in Sy. No.3/3.

48. The plaintiff has also not produced any records relating to formation of layout by Tirupathaappa which could have thrown light as to how many sites were formed by Tirupathappa. The plaintiff has also not produced the sale deeds said to have been executed by Tirupathappa in respect of sites formed in Survey No.3/3 measuring 1 acre 13 guntas. Had the plaintiff revealed as to how many sites have been formed, sold and retained by Tirupathappa, the Court would have been in a position to ascertain as to whether Tirupathappa had retained any sites, which eventually would be inherited by his two children namely T.Rangaswamy and T.Venkatesh. However, it is not done.

49. In addition, it is required to be noticed that the records viz., encumbrance certificate, khata certificates and extracts and tax paid receipts marked at Exhibits-D3, D7 to D17, D25 to D32 would indicate that the suit sites were standing in the name of Defendants No.1 to 7, when they executed the sale deed in the name of defendants No.8 and 9, and after the execution of the sale deed, the khatha was changed in the names of the purchasers namely defendants No.8 and 9.

50. Though the learned counsel for the plaintiff/appellant is right in holding that the Trial Court disbelieved the power of attorney on an untenable ground that the signature in the power of attorney is not marked and identified, which could not have been a ground to ignore the power of attorney. The Court is of the view that, there is a valid ground to reject the power of attorney as the recital in the power of attorney read with the evidence of the power of attorney holder-PW.2 would indicate that, the said power of attorney was a power of attorney coupled with interest where through power of attorney, the title is said to have been conveyed to the power of attorney holder.

51. The power of attorney holder in his cross-examination states that, when the power of attorney was executed he paid the consideration amount to T.Rangaswamy and T.Venkatesh. He also stated that when he sold the property, he retained the consideration amount. If that is the evidence, the Court is of the view that the power of attorney required registration as the power of attorney holder seems to be contending that he purchased the property under the power of attorney from the alleged previous owners.

52. The Court is concurring with the view of the Trial Court which has recorded a finding that, the plaintiff has failed to establish the title of his vendors.

53. Though the learned counsel for the plaintiff/appellant has urged that, even the defendants have failed to produce the plan of the layout said to have been formed by Narasimhaiah, the son from the second wife, on preponderance of probability, the Court is of the view that, there are materials to hold that the property records stood in the names of the defendants No.1 to 7 when the sale deed was executed by defendants No.1 to 7 in favour of defendants No.8 and 9.

54. It is relevant to notice that PW2 the power of attorney holder has stated that on 06.03.1991 the properties in the names of children of Tirupathappa were partitioned, however, no records are produced to establish the alleged partition and allotment of Sy. No.3/3 in favour of children of Tirupathappa.

55. Though an argument is advanced to identify the suit properties with reference to the boundaries mentioned in several sale deeds marked and though it is urged that extent of Sy.No.3/3 cannot be 2 acre 15 guntas and only 2 acre 5 guntas, the Court is of the view that these contentions do not establish the plaintiff's title over the suit properties. The discrepancy in the extent of Sy.No.3/3 to the extent of 10 guntas in an area measuring 2 acre 5 guntas or 2 acre 15 guntas, will not come to the aid of plaintiff to establish his title over the properties. As already noticed, the plaintiff is not in a position to establish that Tirupathappa held these properties at the time of his death or his children possessed his properties and partitioned the properties after the demise of Tirupathappa or at the time of execution of the alleged sale deed in favour of the plaintiff.

56. It is relevant to notice that defendants to substantiate their contention that site bearing No.3 is sold on 14.05.1971 have produced the registered sale deed dated 14.05.1971 at Ex.D.22. The said sale deed reveals that the property bearing Site Nos.3 and 4 is sold by Tirupathappa in favour of L.Narayana.

57. The sale deed marked at Ex.D.24 would reveal that Tirupathappa sold site Nos.5 and 6 to B. T. Hanumaiah.

58. These sale deeds are not questioned. It is not the case that Tirupathappa gave same site number to different sites. Even if such contention is raised, same cannot be accepted. This being the position, the Court is of the view that the plaintiff has failed to substantiate his case.

59. The plaintiffs have produced the judgments passed by the Civil Courts in respect of some properties. Those judgments are of no consequence as the present defendants/respondents or their predecessors were not parties to the said proceeding. Thus, the said judgments do not operate against or bind the defendants. It is also noticed some of the judgments are not pertaining to the suit properties.

60. Hence, the following:
