ORAL ORDER

Petitioner is before this Court seeking a direction to the 2nd respondent – Central Prison, Bengaluru, to release her husband – Veeresh (CTP No.10366), who is currently serving sentence at the Central Prison, Bangalore, as a life convict on emergency parole, in terms of the Prison Manual and for other reliefs.

2. Heard learned counsel appearing for the petitioner and learned AGA appearing for respondents and perused the material on record.

3. The material on record discloses that the petitioner's husband has been convicted and sentenced to undergo imprisonment for life in relation to the proceedings in Spl.C.C.No.453/2017 vide judgment dated 30.04.2018 and the petitioner seeks parole on behalf of her husband on the humanitarian ground that she is pregnant and since her husband had already undergone imprisonment for more than 8 years 3 months and the application filed by the petitioner has not been considered by the respondents, petitioner is before this Court by way of the present petition.

4. I have given my anxious consideration to the rival contentions of both parties and perused the material on record.

5. The aforementioned facts are not in dispute and therefore, requires no reiteration. The petitioner seeks emergency parole for her husband on the ground that she is pregnant and her husband having already undergone imprisonment for more than 8 years 3 months and she requires the custody and company of her husband by way of emergency parole for a period of one month. Therefore, I deem it appropriate to grant the petitioner's husband – Veeresh (CTP No.10366) emergency parole and direct his release for a period of one month, which becomes operational from 19.05.2026 to 19.06.2026.

6. In the result, I pass the following:-

ORDER

- (i) Petition is hereby allowed in part.

one month, which becomes operational from 19.05.2026 to 19.06.2026.

(iii) The convict (CTP No.10366) – shall mark his attendance before the SHO of jurisdictional police station, weekly once throughout the period of his parole and it would be the responsibility of the jurisdictional police to take him to jail, in the event, the convict (CTP No.10366) would evade going back to the jail after the expiry of the period of emergency parole.

(iv) Respondents shall stipulate strict conditions as are usually stipulated, to ensure return of the detenue to the jail and that the convict shall not commit any other offences during the period of parole.

(v) The learned AGA as well as the Registry are directed to communicate this order to respondents, by way of telephone and e-mail forthwith.
