ORAL JUDGMENT

(PER: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE D K SINGH)

The present intra Court Appeals have been filed impugning the judgment and orders dated 23.02.2026, 03.02.2026, 26.02.2026 and 19.02.2026 passed in W.P.Nos.3430/2026, 1288/2026, 3298/2026 and 3672/2026 respectively by the writ Court.

2. The State Government came out with a brilliant and unconstitutional amendment to the provisions of the Karnataka Land Reforms Act, 1961, by inserting Section 38A by Act No.43 of 2017. The amended section would read as under :-

"38A. Grant of certificate of ownership to an agricultural labourer.- (1) Notwithstanding anything

Explanation.- For the purpose of this section an agricultural labourer residing in a dwelling house which is a portion of the house of the owner or which is a temporary residence on such land shall not be regarded as ordinary residing therein.

copy of the certificate shall be forwarded by the Tahasildar to the sub-registrar who shall, notwithstanding anything contained in the Registration Act, 1908 (Central Act 16 of 1908) register the same. The owner of the land shall be paid the amount remitted by the agricultural labourer in cash in a lump sum.

(5) The provisions of section 61 shall apply to a dwelling house or site granted under this section to an agricultural labourer as they apply to a land in respect of which a tenant has been registered as an occupant."

3. By way of amendment, the State Government wants the private properties to be handed over to the persons, who have illegally and unauthorizedly occupied the private lands. This amendment is an ingenious effort on the part of the State Government, to confer the rights in favour of the persons, who are on the wrong side of the law. If the State, in its benevolent outlook towards so-called marginalization, wants to confer rights over the private lands, the State should acquire that lands under the provisions of the law by making adequate and timely payment of compensation.

4. However, the State has no right to acquire or get vested in it, the private property, in violation of Article 300A of the Constitution of India without acquiring the property in exercise of the power of eminent domain.

5. It is well established that power of eminent domain cannot be exercised in violation of Article 300A of the Constitution of India even for the public purpose. The purpose of amendment may be loud, but it is on the face of it unconstitutional.

6. We therefore, find no ground to interfere with the impugned judgment and orders dated 23.02.2026, 03.02.2026, 26.02.2026 and 19.02.2026 passed in W.P.Nos.3430/2026, 1288/2026, 3298/2026 and 3672/2026 respectively, by the learned Single Judge.
