Order

This writ petition has been filed to direct the respondents to drop the proposal of establishing the TASMACH Shop at the place, morefully described in the prayer to this writ petition.

2.The petitioner's grievance is that if the TASMACH Shop is allowed to be opened at the place, morefully described in the prayer to this writ petition, it will cause nuisance to the persons residing in that area. The petitioner therefore has given representations to the respondents not to open the TASMACH Shop at the place, morefully described in the prayer to this writ petition. Since the said representations were not considered, the petitioner has filed this writ petition.
