The petitioner had sent a representation on 18.02.2026 seeking no objection certificate to run a SPA and Massage parlour and beauty parlour.

2.The contention of the petitioner is that the petitioner had started a business in the name of Apple Spa and Unisex Saloon at RamNagar, Coimbatore. It is Mandatory to obtain a no objection certificate from the jurisdictional police to get a licence for running a beauty parlour. Since no objection certificate has not been issued, the present petition.

3.The learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the address, in which the petitioner is to run the massage parlour, was earlier run by another person against whom, several cases are pending. Now, by changing the name, the petitioner has stepped into the same place. It is further submitted that the petitioner, after submitting the request, had not appeared before the respondent nor produced the document to show whether he is the owner or lessee to the property and whether he is qualified to run the Spa. No details regarding the physical features of the place of business. Unless the petitioner appears and produces all the necessary documents only thereafter on satisfaction, the police can issue the no objection certificate.

4.Further, the learned counsel for the petitioner on the instruction submitted that the petitioner is ready and appear before the respondent police on 28.04.2026 along with the supporting documents and give his explanation thereafter the police to consider the presentation and if he is entitle, to take a decision in this case.

5.Heard the learned Govt.Advocate (CrI.Side) appearing for the respodnent.

6.Considering the submissions made by the learned counsel on either side, this Court is directed the petitioner to appear before the respondent police on 28.04.2026 along with the supporting documents and give his explanation and the respondent police is directed to conduct and complete the enquiry within the period of four weeks from the date of receipt of a copy of this order.
