2. The learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner has constructed a house in Survey Nos. 425/14 and 425/15, has not encroached upon any public pathway, and causes no hindrance to the public. However, at the instigation of the private respondent, the official respondents are attempting to take action against the petitioner as if he had constructed steps on the pathway. He further submitted that the 2nd respondent has already forwarded the representation submitted by the petitioner to the Revenue Tashildar, Attur Taluk, for taking necessary action therein.

3. Heard the learned counsel for the petitioner and the learned Government Counsel appearing for respondents 1 to 4.

4. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case, this Court is of the view that the issues involved raise disputed questions of fact. Hence, this Court directs the respondents not to take any action to remove the steps constructed by the petitioner, unless any aggrieved party approaches the competent Civil Court and obtains appropriate orders therefrom.
