ORDER

The petitioners, who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Section 85 of the BNS 2023 and Sections 3 & 4 of Dowry Prohibition Act 1961 , in Crime No.426 of 2026, on the file of the respondent Police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. Learned counsel for the petitioners submitted that the first petitioner is the son of second and third petitioners. The first petitioner got married with the defacto complainant and the petitioners having the residence at Tamil Nadu. It is also the contention of the petitioners that the first petitioner had already filed an application seeking dissolution of marriage on the ground cruelty in HMOP No.3061 of 2025 before the III Additional Family Court, Chennai.

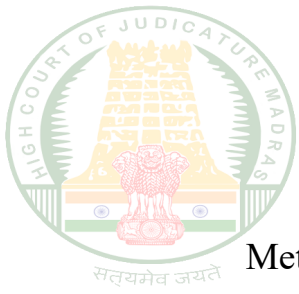

3. It is also the contention of the petitioners that the complaint under Sections 85 of BNS and 3 & 4 of Dowry Prohibition Act came to be registered against them on 06.05.2026. The marriage between the first petitioner and the defacto complainant took place in the year 2023. He further submitted that the the petitioners have no relatives to have the assistance at Telangana for approaching the jurisdictional Court. Hence they prayed to protect their liberty.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent police reiterated the prosecution case and strongly opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. From the materials placed before this Court, it is seen that the petitioners are residents of the State of Tamil Nadu, whereas the FIR has been registered in the State of Telangana. The petitioners had no friends and relatives so as to effectively assist them to get a legal remedy at Telangana for which they require reasonable time. Hence, this Court is of the view that it is appropriate to grant interstate anticipatory bail to the petitioners for a period of four weeks.

6. Accordingly, interim interstate anticipatory bail is granted to the petitioners subject to the following conditions:
