ORDER

Today, there is no representation on behalf of the petitioner.

2. On an earlier occasion, this Court was informed that the petitioner had passed away. Consequently, this Court directed the legal heirs of the deceased petitioner to take steps to implead themselves in the place of the deceased petitioner. They were further directed to file English translations of the relevant documents which are in the Tamil language, with an explicit condition that failure to comply would result in the dismissal of the Writ Petition. However, till date, no steps have been taken to implead the legal heirs, and the translations of the Tamil documents have also not been filed.

3. In view of the above, this Writ Petition is dismissed for non-prosecution. No costs.
