3.The learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that the accusation is false and that the amount collected from the defacto complainant has already been repaid. It was further submitted that, due to some other dispute, a false case has been registered against the petitioner. Hence, he prayed for the grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent police reiterated the prosecution case and submitted that petitioner had cheated the defacto complainant to the tune of Rs.18,30,000/-. He further submitted that investigation in this case is pending and hence he opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to petitioner.

5.Considering the fact that it is the case of non return of the money collected by the petitioner under the guise of loan arrangement, hence the custodial interrogation of the petitioner is not necessary, I am inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner, subject to certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on her appearance, within a period of fifteen (15) days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned XVII MM at Saidapet, on condition that the petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only), with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned, and on further conditions:
