..Respondents

Prayer : Writ Petition (Criminal) filed under Article 226 of the Constitution of India, praying to issue a Writ, order or Direction more particularly a Writ in the nature of Writ of Mandamus directing the Respondents to consider my representation dated 09.07.2026 and consequently direct the respondents, particularly the 3rd respondent, not to harass me by repeatedly summoning me without authority of law, not to foist false criminal case against me and not to take coercive action including preventive detention except in accordance with law and pass such further or other orders as this Hon'ble Court may deem fit and proper in the circumstances of the case.

For Petitioner: Ms.P.Bakkiyalakshmi

For Respondents: Mr.R.Ganesh Kumar
Counsel for Government of Tamil Nadu
(Criminal Side)

ORDER

This Writ Petition (Criminal) has been filed seeking a direction to the respondents to consider the representation submitted by the petitioner dated 09.07.2026.

2. Heard the learned counsel appearing on either side and perused the materials available on record.

3. A perusal of the representation submitted by the petitioner reveals that the petitioner seeks a direction to the respondents not to harass him and not to threaten him with detention under Act 14 of 1982.

4. On instructions, the learned Counsel for Government of Tamil Nadu (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondents submitted that the petitioner is an accused in two cases and was granted bail on condition that he appear before the third respondent. However, the petitioner failed to cooperate with the investigation. It is further submitted that whenever the third respondent insisted on his cooperation with the investigation, the petitioner sent representations to the higher officials, alleging that the third respondent was harassing him under the guise of an investigation.

5. In view of the above, the representation submitted by the petitioner cannot be considered. Thus, the writ petition is devoid of merits and is liable to be dismissed. Accordingly, this Writ Petition (Criminal) stands dismissed. The petitioner is directed to cooperate with the third respondent in the course of the investigation. At the same time, the third respondent is directed not to harass the petitioner beyond the investigation in the cases registered against the petitioner. No costs.
