These Civil Revision Petitions have been filed under Article 227 of the Constitution of India, against the fair and decreetal order dated 10.08.2022 passed by the learned Additional District Munsif Court, Alandur, in I.A.Nos. 829 to 831 of 2021 in O.S.No.576 of 2016, wherein the Court below dismissed the applications filed by the petitioners for reopening, recalling PW1 and for marking additional documents.

2. This Court heard the learned counsel appearing on either side, carefully perused the materials placed before this Court and went through the common order passed by the Court below.

3. The petitioners are the plaintiffs in the suit. The suit was filed seeking for the relief of declaration and permanent injunction. The case was at the stage of completion of evidence of DW1. At this stage, three applications were filed by the plaintiffs for reopening, recalling PW1 and for marking additional documents. These applications came to be rejected by the Court below by an order dated 10.08.2022. Aggrieved by the same, the present civil revision petitions have been filed before this Court.

4. On a careful perusal of the order of the Court below, it is seen that the suit is of the year 2016 and at the stage of cross examination of DW1, initially the plaintiffs had filed I.A.Nos. 493 & 1075 of 2019 for receiving additional documents and those applications were allowed. Thereafter, the evidence of DW1 was completed and once again the applications were moved to reopen the evidence of PW1 for marking additional documents.

5. The plaintiffs cannot be allowed to mark documents in instalments and they have to prosecute the suit with due diligence. The documents that are sought to be brought in are not new documents and if at all, the plaintiffs had not filed those documents initially at least when the earlier applications were filed, these documents should also have been brought in as additional documents. However, the plaintiffs have chosen to wait for the completion of the evidence on the side of the defendants and they have moved the present application for reopening and recalling PW1 for marking additional documents.

6. The Court below has properly applied its mind and has rightly rejected the applications and the order passed by the Court below does not suffer from any perversity warranting the interference of this Court in exercise of its jurisdiction under Article 227 of the Constitution of India.

7. It is brought to the notice of this Court that the suit has now been transferred to the file of the District Munsif-cum-Judicial Magistrate Court, Sholinganallur and renumbered as O.S.No.835 of 2024.

8. In the result, these Civil Revision Petitions are dismissed. No costs. Consequently, the connected miscellaneous petitions are closed.
