

vide proceedings dated 22.03.2025 passed by the 2nd respondent herein. As there was no further proceedings taken by the respondents even after lapse of more than a year, the petitioner has approached this Court by filing the present writ petition challenging the order of suspension dated 22.03.2025, contending that the prolonged suspension is not justified and the respondents are under an obligation to revoke the suspension order, as there was no progress in the proceedings that were initiated against the petitioner pursuant to the trap laid against the petitioner.

2. On the other hand, Mr.K.Satish, learned Additional Government Pleader, submits that, in terms of the orders issued by the Government in G.O.Ms.No.81, Human Resources Management Department, dated 04.08.2022, the 2nd respondent is under an obligation to review the order of suspension on expiry of three months period of suspension and that appropriate directions may be issued to the 2nd respondent to review the order of suspension.

3. This Court has come across several matters where G.O.Ms.No.81, dated 04.08.2022, has fallen for consideration. This Court is of the considered view that competent authority, who has placed the delinquent employee under suspension, is under an obligation to review the order of suspension in the light of the guidelines issued by the Government in G.O.Ms.No.81, dated 04.08.2022.

4. In the light of the above, taking into consideration the fact that the petitioner has been kept under suspension for more than a year, the 2nd respondent is directed to review the order of suspension dated 22.03.2025, duly taking into consideration the guidelines laid down by the Government in G.O.Ms.No.81, dated 04.08.2022, and pass appropriate orders, taking conscious decision as to whether the continuation of the petitioner under suspension is necessary or not, as expeditiously as possible within a period of six weeks from the date of receipt of a copy of this order.

5. Accordingly, this writ petition is disposed of. Connected miscellaneous petitions, if any, shall stand closed. No costs.
