2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner who is the husband of the defacto complainant due to matrimonial dispute had dashed his car against the defacto complainant and thereby attempted to commit murder of the defacto complainant. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that this is the second bail application filed by the peittioner and the earlier bail application is dismissed on the ground that the defacto complainant has sustained grievous injuries and now the defacto complainant has been discharged from the hospital. He further submitted that the investigation has been completed and the charge sheet has also been filed. Hence, he prays to grant bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent police reiterated the prosecution case and submitted that investigation has been completed and charge sheet has been taken cognizance in PRC No.13 of 2026. He further submitted that the injured was discharged from the hospital. However, he oppose to grant bail to the petitioner.

5. I have given my anxious consideration to the submissions made by the learned counsel on either side and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the nature of the allegation the fact that the injured was discharged from the hospital, and that the investigation has been completed and the charge sheet has also been filed and also considering the long incarceration by the petitioner, this Court is inclined to enlarge the petitioner on bail subject to certain conditions.

7. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail on his executing a bond for a sum of Rs.25,000/- (Rupees Twenty Five Thousand only) with two sureties each, for a like sum to the satisfaction of the learned Judicial Magistrate, Rasipuram, and on further conditions that:

appropriate orders against the petitioner in accordance with law as if the aforementioned conditions have been imposed and the petitioner released on bail by the learned Magistrate/Trial Court himself as laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in P.K.Shaji vs. State of Kerala [(2005)13 SCC 283];

[f] If the accused thereafter absconds, a fresh FIR can be registered under Section 269 of B.N.S.
