COMMON ORDER

Since the respondent and the issues involved in these Contempt Petitions are one and the same, they are taken up together and a common order is being passed.

2. When the petitions are taken up for hearing, the learned standing counsel appearing for the respondents would submit that the orders passed by this Court has been duly complied with and the respondent has deposited the amount to the credit of the petitioners, thereby pleaded to close the contempt petitions.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioners submits that there are certain disputes in the deposited amount.

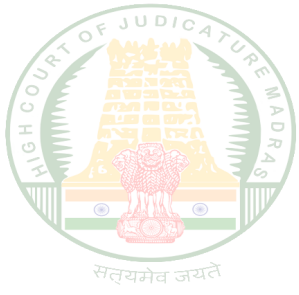

3. Considering the submission of the learned standing counsel appearing for the respondent that the entire amount has already been deposited to the account of the petitioners and taking note of the fact that the petitioners are disputing the amount, which was already disbursed, the petitioners shall submit a representation to the respondent and on receipt of the same, the respondent is directed to consider the representation within a period of two weeks from the date of receipt of copy of the representation.

Accordingly, the present Contempt Petitions are closed.
