The petitioner apprehends arrest for the alleged offence under Sections Sections 406, 420, 465, 468, 471 and 506(1) of IPC, in Crime No.552 of 2025 , on the file of the respondent police seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner along with other accused had collected a sum of Rs.10 Lakhs from the defacto complainant for secure a Job in High Court and thereafter, they neither secured the job nor returned the money. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is innocent and she has not committed any such offence as alleged by the prosecution and she has been falsely implicated in this case. He further submitted that this is the third anticipatory bail petition and earlier petitions filed by the petitioner was dismissed by this Court and now, the change of circumstance is the co-accused (A1) was granted bail by this Court in Crl.OP(MD)No.3238 of 2026 on 17.02.2026. Hence, he prayed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Counsel For State of TN (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent police, submitted that this is the third anticipatory bail petition and there is no change of circumstance. Hence, he opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. I have gone through the order passed by this Court dated 17.02.2026.

6. After considering the various facts, including the incarceration undergone by the co-accused, this Court released the co-accused on bail, whereas the petitioner herein is a lady, and also considering the nature of allegations against her, I am of the view that the petitioner is also entitled to bail on the same conditions imposed by this Court in Crl.OP(MD)No. 3238 of 2026 dated 17.02.2026. Therefore, I am inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner, subject to certain conditions.

7. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on her appearance, within a period of fifteen (15) days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the
