2026 for the future months also as per the GO MS No. 42 Finance (Pension) Department Government of Tamil Nadu without any further delay and consequently to provide enhanced family pension to the petitioner.

3. When the matter was taken up for consideration on 15.06.2026, this Court passed the following order:

“Notice before admission.

2. Mr.C.Rajakumar, learned counsel takes notice for respondents 1 to 3 and seeks time for getting instructions.

3. This is a case, where the petitioner is claiming for additional family pension at the rate of 20% on completing the age of 80 years and additional family pension of 30% on completion of 85 years and then additional family pension of 40% on completion of 90 years in terms of G.O.(Ms.)No. 42, Finance (Pension) Department dated 07.02.2011.

4. The learned counsel appearing for respondents 1 to 3 submits that there is no dispute about the entitlement of the petitioner for additional family pension. It is only because of the financial constraints, the same could not be paid.

5. In the light of the above, the respondents are directed to pass orders granting additional pension from the respective dates of entitlement of the
