ORDER : The Court made the following order :-

The petitioners, who apprehend arrest in connection with Crime No.35 of 2026 on the file of the respondent police, registered for the offences punishable under Sections 191(2), 329(1), 296(b), 324(5), 303(2) and 49 of the Bharatiya Nyaya Sanhita, 2023, and Section 3(1) of the Tamil Nadu Property (Prevention of Damage and Loss) Act, seek the relief of anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioners criminally trespassed into the land belonging to the defacto complainant, abused him in filthy language, and caused damage to the fencing, iron gate and other articles found therein. Hence, a case has been registered against the petitioners for the aforesaid offences.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioners submitted that the petitioners have been falsely implicated in this case. He further submitted that the earlier anticipatory bail petition filed by the petitioners was dismissed by this Court in Crl.OP(MD).No.2151 of 2026 dated 10.02.2026. He further submitted that the earlier petition had been filed in a haste, without taking into consideration the role attributed to the other accused. He further submitted that, subsequent to the dismissal of the earlier bail petition, the parties have restored peace and that the occurrence did not result in any injury. The learned counsel for the petitioners further submitted that the alleged damages have been exaggerated. He further submitted that, subsequent to the dismissal of the earlier bail petition, the parties have restored peace and that the occurrence did not result in any injury. It was further submitted that the petitioners are ready and willing to cooperate with the investigation and abide by any condition that may be imposed by this Court. Accordingly, the learned counsel prayed for the grant of anticipatory bail.

4. Per contra, the learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) reiterated the prosecution case and submitted that the occurrence arose out of a property dispute, in the course of which the petitioners allegedly threatened the defacto complainant with dire consequences. He further submitted that the petitioners have no previous criminal antecedents. The investigation is still in progress. Hence, he opposed the grant of anticipatory bail.

5. This Court has carefully considered the rival submissions and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the nature of the allegations, the fact that the occurrence did not result in any bodily injury, the submission that the parties have subsequently restored peace and also considering the fact that there are no previous cases against the petitioners and also taking into account the contention of the petitioners that the alleged damages have been exaggerated, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners subject to the following conditions.
