ORDER

The petitioner apprehends arrest for the alleged offence under

CRL OP(MD). No.12812 of 2026

Sections 85, 82 and 351 of BNS Act, 2023, in Crime No.21 of 2026, on the file of the respondent police seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The allegation against the petitioner is that the petitioner is the husband of the defacto complainant and A2 is the concubine of the petitioner and A2 and other accused supported the petitioner for his illegal act of demanding more dowry and some property from the defacto complainant and it is stated that the occurrence was took place between the defacto complainant and the petitioner in the year 2015. However, the petitioner continuously harassed the defacto complainant and threatened her with dire consequences and continuously demanded property from her. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is innocent and he has not committed any such offence as alleged by the prosecution and he has been falsely implicated in this case. Hence, he prayed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent police reiterated the prosecution case and on instructions, reported that sofar no one has been arrested and FIR was registered recently and hence, the investigation is at preliminary stage. Hence, he opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. I have gone through the FIR and also the connected materials.

6.Considering the nature of allegations against the petitioner, and also considering the facts that alleged transactions taken place in the year 2015, I am inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner, subject to certain conditions.

7. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen (15) days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the Additional Mahila Court, Karur, on condition that the petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.15,000/- (Rupees Fifteen Thousand only), with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned, and on further condition:
