(Crime No.256 of 2026)

... Respondent/Complainant

PRAYER :-Criminal Original Petition filed under Section 482 of the Bharatiya Nagarik Suraksha Sanhita, 2023, seeking to enlarge the petitioner on bail in the event of arrest in Crime No.256 of 2026 on the file of the respondent police, or on his appearance.

For Petitioner : Mr.D.Muthupandi

For Respondent : Mr.J.Vishnu
Government Advocate
(Criminal Side)

CRL OP(MD)No.14703 of 2026

ORDER : The Court made the following order :-

WEB COPY The petitioner, who apprehends arrest in connection with Crime No.256 of 2026 on the file of the respondent police, registered for the offences punishable under Sections 191(2), 296(b), 118(1), 303(2) and 351(3) of the Bharatiya Nyaya Sanhita, 2023, and Section 4 of the Tamil Nadu Prohibition of Harassment of Women Act, 1998, seeks the relief of anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that, on 29.06.2026 at about 11.30 hours, owing to a previous dispute, the petitioner, along with the other accused, abused the defacto complainant in filthy language, assaulted the defacto complainant and her mother with an iron rod and a wooden stick, snatched a gold chain weighing about 5 sovereigns from the defacto complainant's daughter, and criminally intimidated them with dire consequences. Hence, the present case.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that a false case has been foisted against the petitioner. He further submitted that there are no previous cases against the petitioner. He also submitted that the petitioner is ready and willing to cooperate with the investigation and abide by any condition that may be imposed by this Court. Hence, he prayed for the grant of anticipatory bail.

4. Per contra, the learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) reiterated the prosecution case and submitted that the injured has been discharged from the hospital. He further submitted that there are no previous cases against the petitioner. He also submitted that the investigation in the present case is still in progress and, therefore, opposed the grant of anticipatory bail.

5. This Court has carefully considered the rival submissions and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the nature of the allegations, the fact that the injured has already been discharged from the hospital, and the fact that the petitioner has no previous criminal antecedents, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner, subject to the following conditions.

7. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate No.II, Sivagangai, Sivagangai District, on condition that the petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the learned Judicial Magistrate concerned and on further conditions that:

(a) the petitioner and the sureties shall affix their photographs and left thumb impression in the surety bond and the Magistrate may obtain a copy of their Aadhar card or Bank pass Book to ensure their identity;

(b) the petitioner shall report before the respondent police daily at 10.30 a.m. for a period of two weeks, and thereafter as and when required for the interrogation;

(c) the petitioner shall not tamper with evidence or witness either during investigation or trial;

(d) the petitioner shall not abscond either during investigation or trial;
