The petitioners/A1 & A2, who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences under Sections 296(b), 118(1) and 351(3) of BNS, 2023, in Crime No.222 of 2026, on the file of the respondent Police, seek anticipatory bail.

2.The allegation against the petitioners is that due to tenancy dispute, the petitioners abused the defacto complainant in filthy language and also attacked him and thereby, he sustained injuries and criminally intimidated him. Hence, the present complaint.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioners submitted that the petitioners are innocent and they are no way connected with the alleged offence as stated by the defacto complainant and that they have been falsely implicated in this case. A counter complaint has also been registered against the defacto complainant. He further submitted that they are ready to abide by any stringent conditions that may be imposed by this Court. Hence, he prayed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) appearing for the respondent police while opposing for granting anticipatory bail to the petitioners, reiterated the prosecution case and submitted that the injured has been discharged from the hospital and both the petitioners have no previous cases and a counter case has been registered against the defacto complainant.

5. Heard the learned counsels and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the facts of the case and a counter case has been registered against the defacto complainant and the petitioners have no previous cases and also considering the fact that the injured person has been discharged from the hospital, hence, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners subject to certain conditions.

[a] Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial
