ORDER : The Court made the following order :-

The petitioner, who apprehends arrest in connection with Crime No.339 of 2026 on the file of the respondent police, registered for the offences punishable under Sections 191(2), 115(2), 140(3) and 351(3) of the Bharatiya Nyaya Sanhita, 2023, seeks the relief of anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner herein, along with the other accused, owing to previous enmity, attacked the sone of the defacto complainant and the defacto complainant with a stick. Thereafter, the defacto complainant lodged a complaint, based on which the present case has been registered.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that a false case has been foisted against the petitioner. He further submitted that there are no previous cases against the petitioner. He also submitted that the petitioner is ready and willing to cooperate with the investigation and abide by any condition that may be imposed by this Court. Hence, he prayed for the grant of anticipatory bail.

4. Per contra, the learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) reiterated the prosecution case and submitted that the petitioner actively participated in the occurrence. He further submitted that there are no previous cases against the petitioner. He also submitted that the investigation in the present case is still in progress and, therefore, opposed the grant of anticipatory bail.

5. This Court has carefully considered the rival submissions and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the nature of the allegations, the fact that the petitioner has no previous criminal antecedents, and his willingness to cooperate with the investigation, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner, subject to the following conditions.

7. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate No.VI, Madurai, on condition that the petitioner shall
