PRAYER: Petition filed under Article 226 of the Constitution of India, to issue a writ of certiorarified mandamus calling for the entire records pertaining to the impugned proceeding of the 1st respondent in Na.Ka.197/2026/Tho.Ve.Sa dated 30.06.2026 and quash the same as illegal and further direct to 1st respondent to reinstate the petitioner into service as expeditiously as possible with a time frame as fixed by this Court.

For Respondents : Mrs.K.Porkodi

2. Learned counsel for the petitioner contends that on an earlier occasion, the respondents placed the petitioner under suspension vide order dated 22.08.2024 and the said suspension order has been set aside by this Court vide order dated 05.01.2026 in W.P.(MD) No.20886 of 2024. But, despite the same, the respondents have, once again, issued the impugned suspension order basing on the very same allegations. He also further submits that all the allegations levelled against the petitioner are false and the petitioner cannot be made liable for all such allegations.

3. This Court, having considered the submissions made by the learned counsel for the petitioner and also perused the materials on record, is of the considered view that this is not a fit case, where this Court can interfere with the impugned order of suspension. Earlier, the order of suspension dated 22.08.2024 was interfered with by this Court only on the ground that the same was passed by an incompetent authority. This Court has never gone into the merits of the matter. Therefore, it is totally irrelevant to say that on the very same allegations, the impugned order of suspension cannot be issued. A perusal of the impugned proceedings discloses that the same has been issued by the Common Cadre Authority, which is the competent authority to place the petitioner under suspension. In the circumstances, this Court is not inclined to interfere with the impugned suspension as the same is of recent origin.

4. Accordingly, this writ petition is dismissed. No costs. Consequently, connected miscellaneous petition is closed.
