The petitioners / accused 6 and 5, who were arrested and remanded to judicial custody on 03.08.2026 for the offences punishable under Sections 109, 120B, 420, 447, 465, 466, 468 and 471 IPC, in Crime No.771 of 2026, on the file of the respondent police, seek bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioners along with other accused had created forged revenue records and by using the same, the first accused executed a settlement deed in favour of his son, the second accused, who in turn, executed a fraudulent deed transferring the property in favour of the fourth accused's husband. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioners would submit that the petitioners are innocent and they have been falsely implicated in the above case and that they are no way connected with the alleged crime. He would further submit that the fourth accused was granted bail by this Court in Crl.O.P.(MD)No.17951 of 2026 on 19.08.2026 as she was neither a party nor a witness to the alleged sale deed and that the petitioners are in judicial custody from 03.08.2026.

4. The learned Counsel for State of TN (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent police would submit that the allegation levelled against the petitioners is that they encroached the disputed land and that the petitioners were neither parties nor witnesses to the alleged sale deed. He would further submit that the second petitioner is having two previous cases.

5. Considering the above facts and circumstances and the nature of the offences alleged against the petitioners and also the facts that the petitioners were neither parties nor witnesses to the alleged sale deed and that the first petitioner is not having any previous cases and the second petitioner is not having any previous cases for similar offence, this
