2.Learned Counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is a senior citizen. The petitioner's husband passed away 7 years ago and she has two sons and one daughter, in which two sons have passed away and one daughter has been given in marriage to one Kadarkariandi. While the petitioner's husband was alive, he had gifted their house to the elder son Sakthivel and the said Sakthivel demolished the old house and constructed a new one when he was alive. After his demise, the petitioner's daughter-in-law took the petitioner to the Sub Registrar's office and got the said house property registered fraudulently in the name of the petitioner's grandson minor Boopalan vide Doc.No.2331 of 2020. Another house was gifted to her second son Subburaj. Hence, the petitioner approached the second respondent under the Maintenance and Welfare of Parents and Senior Citizens Act, 2007, against the third and fourth respondents, who are her daughters-in-law. The second respondent vide order dated 02.06.2023, directed the third and fourth respondent to provide food, dress and shelter to the petitioner.

3.Thereafter, since the order of the second respondent was not obeyed by the third and fourth respondents, the petitioner filed an appeal before the first respondent. The first respondent, after enquiry passed an order dated 19.07.2023, confirming the order of the second respondent. Even then, the third and fourth respondents are not maintaining the petitioner senior citizen and hence, the petitioner had sent representations to the first and second respondents to implement their orders. Hence, the present Writ Petition.

4.Learned State Counsel appearing for the official respondents 1 & 2 would submit that the orders of the first and second respondents would be implemented within a time frame to be fixed by this Court.

5.Heard the learned Counsel for the parties.

6.Considering the facts and circumstances of the case, this Court directs the respondents 1 & 2 to implement their orders dated 19.07.2023 and 02.06.2023, respectively, if not already done and pass appropriate orders, within a period of six [6] weeks from the date of receipt of a copy of this order.
