

sympathetic consideration by this Court. The petitioner was arrested on 21.11.2025 and is in custody for the last more than 07 months. Even though, the petitioner was involved in eight more FIRs, but she is on bail in all the cases.

3. On the other hand, learned State counsel has vehemently opposed the submissions made by learned counsel for the petitioner on the ground that serious allegations have been levelled against the present petitioner and she does not deserve the concession of bail by this Court. He further submits that the petitioner is a hardened criminal and is involved in eight other cases.

4. I have heard the learned counsel for the parties and perused the record.

5. In the present case, the recovery of 14 kgs of poppy husk was effected by the police from the petitioner and her co-accused, which is non-commercial in nature. Even the rigors of Section 37 of NDPS Act may not strictly apply to the facts of the present case. Apart from that, the petitioner is stated to be in custody for the last more than 07 months and challan has already been presented against her.

6. Without commenting on the merits of the case, the present petition is allowed and the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail subject to her furnishing bail bonds/surety bonds to the satisfaction of the trial Court/Duty Magistrate/Chief Judicial Magistrate, concerned, subject to the following conditions:-

(i) The petitioner shall not directly or indirectly make any inducement, threat or promise to any person acquainted with the facts of the case, so as to dissuade her to disclose such facts to the Court or to any other authority.

- (ii) The petitioner shall remain present before the Court on the dates fixed for hearing of the case.
- (iii) The petitioner shall not absent herself from the Court proceedings except on the prior permission of the Court concerned.
- (iv) The petitioner shall surrender her passport, if any, (if already not surrendered), and in case she is not holder of the same, she shall swear an affidavit to that effect.
- (v) The petitioner shall also file her affidavit before the concerned Court, mentioning her ordinary place of residence and number of mobile phone, which shall be used by her during the pendency of the trial. In case of change of place of residence/mobile number, she shall share the details with the concerned Court/learned Trial Court.
- (vi) In case, the petitioner involves in any other criminal activity, during the pendency of the trial, it shall be viewed seriously.
- (vii) The concerned Court may insist on two heavy local sureties and may also impose any other condition, in accordance with law, while accepting the bails bonds and surety bonds of the petitioner.
