Ms. Malvika Singh, DAG, Haryana.
(appeared on advance notice).

SANJAY VASHISTH, J.

1. By way of the present petition filed under Articles 226/227 of the Constitution of India, the petitioners seek protection of their lives and personal liberty on the ground that they are residing together in a live-in relationship and are facing imminent threats at the hands of the private respondents.

2. Petitioner No.1 is unmarried, whereas petitioner No.2 is already married to one Manjit Kaur. Two children have been born out of the said wedlock and are presently residing with petitioner No.2. It is also noticed that the wife of petitioner No.2, namely Manjit Kaur, has not been impleaded as a party to the present petition.

3. In view of the aforesaid, learned counsel for the petitioners prays for permission to withdraw the present petition with liberty to file a fresh petition after impleading the wife of petitioner No.2 as party respondent.
