CM-4693-LPA-2026

Present application has been filed for seeking condonation of delay of 127 days in filing the appeal.

Keeping in view the averments made in the application, which are duly supported by an affidavit, the application is allowed and delay of 127 days in filing the appeal is condoned.

LPA-1936-2026(O&M)

1. Learned State counsel for the appellants, on instructions, submits that though, the appellants have no objection in implementing the judgment dated 15.03.2024 passed by learned Single Judge qua the respondents herein, who were diligent enough to approach the Court to seek redressal of their grievance by submitting a demand notice but, as the selection for Driver/Operator/Fireman has already been finalized, the same will open flood gates. The only apprehension is that all other similarly situated persons will also ask for the same review, which will further delay the selection process.

2. We have heard learned counsel for the appellants and have gone through the record with his able assistance.

3. It may be noticed that the apprehension of the learned counsel for the appellant is incorrect as, in case anybody who has not approached the Court in case of any such claim being raised at the belated stage, the Court will appreciate the said fact while deciding the issue.

4. Learned counsel submits that keeping in view the said observations, the present appeal may kindly be disposed of having been not pressed any further.

5. Ordered accordingly.

6. Pending application(s), if any, also stands disposed of accordingly.
