Counsel for the respondents : Mr. R.K. Joshi, learned Brief Holder for the State.

JUDGMENT : (per Sri G. Narendar, C.J.)

Heard learned counsel for the petitioners, and learned Brief Holder for the State of Uttarakhand.

2. It is submitted that both the petitioners belong to different religions; that the petitioners developed a liking for each other and now they intend to enter into love marriage with each other in near future, and presently both the petitioners are living together in the house of petitioner No. 2 at Dehradun. Since the family members and other relatives of the first petitioner are against the petitioners' marriage, they are giving out threats to kill both the petitioners. Petitioners submit that they are facing stiff resistance, and they seriously apprehend threat to their life and limb from the family members and relatives of the first petitioner, and hence they are before this Court praying for protection. It is stated that the petitioners have also submitted a representation to SSP Dehradun and the concerned SHO on 03.01.2026 (Annexure-4 to the writ petition).

3. The documents on record reveal that both the petitioners are majors, and it is also submitted by the learned Brief Holder for the State that both the petitioners are presently living together and intend to marry each other in near future.

4. In that view of the matter, and in view of the ruling of the Hon'ble Supreme Court in the case of Lata Singh v. State of U.P. and another, (2006) 5 SCC 475, the petitioners have made out a case for grant of protection.

5. The Station House Officer concerned is directed to assess the threat, if any, to the life and limb of the petitioners, and provide necessary protection, if it is found that there is a threat to the life and limb of the petitioners. The SHO is further directed to summon the private respondents, and such other persons, who are inimically placed towards the marriage of the petitioners, and counsel them, in accordance with law.

6. The Writ Petition stands ordered accordingly.
