As per the case of the prosecution, on the basis of the FIR, it is reported that the Applicant and the Applicant's brother Inam are building their second house in village Garh, Police Station Ranipur, District Haridwar, which is still under construction. In the said house on 05.05.2025 at around 7 pm, Israel alias Duli son of Ahsan, Idrish son of Shabbir and Qurban son of Sharif of the Applicant's village were consuming alcohol, smack etc. When the brother of the Applicant Inam reached his house and stopped the above mentioned people from consuming liquor, smack etc. in the house, then the above mentioned people abused the mother and sister of the Applicant Inam and threatened to kill him. 		lodging of the FIR and there is no justification to it. He further submits that the Applicant has falsely been implicated in the present matter. It is also contended by the learned counsel for the Applicant that the Applicant is languishing in jail since 28.06.2025.

6. Bail application of the Applicant has been vehemently opposed by the learned State Counsel on the ground that the Applicant deliberately caused serious injuries to the complainant's brother, Inam, by driving the Pickup at high speed three to four times. He further submits that the delay in lodging the FIR was stated to be his involvement in caring for and treating the injured.

7. Considering the overall facts and circumstances of the case, I find it is not a fit case for bail. Consequently, the bail application of the Applicant is hereby rejected.
