He submits that with similar nature of allegations in different States, FIR was lodged against the applicant, however in those cases the applicants have already been enlarged on bail. He submits that since the present applicant is languishing in jail since last more than 9 months and the trial has already been commenced, therefore, the applicant be released on bail particularly keeping in view the fact that as many as six other co-accused persons have been enlarged on bail by the trial court. 6. On the other hand learned AGA have not disputed that other six co-accused persons have already been enlarged on bail and the trial has already been commenced. 7. Mr. Lalit Sharma, learned counsel for the victim submits that the allegations are very serious in nature and not only this, the applicant and other co-accused are indulged in such activities in other States also and this is an organized crime as such the offence punishable under Section 111 of the BNS, 2023 is made out, however, he has also not disputed that other co-accused persons have already been enlarged on bail and the trial has already been commenced. 8.
