ORDER

% 02.09.2026

1. This petition has arisen out of the interim order where the main matter itself has been disposed of by the concerned Court. It is submitted that the revision is pending. The further directions shall be dependent upon the orders to be passed in the pending revision. Even otherwise, if the petitioner is entitled for any interim maintenance, the same shall also be subject matter of the revision petition. In the instant petition, no effective directions can be passed.

2. The petitioner shall be at liberty to file appropriate application there.

3. Accordingly, the present petition stands disposed of. Pending applications also stand disposed of.

4. All the rights and contentions of the parties are left open.
