1. This hearing has been done through hybrid mode.
2. By way of the present petition, the petitioner seeks quashing of FIR No. 779/2015, registered at Police Station Sultan Puri, Delhi, for the offences punishable under Sections 189, 469, 471, 500, 501, 502, and 120B of the Indian Penal Code, 1860 (hereinafter referred to as the 'IPC'), along with all consequential proceedings emanating therefrom, on the basis of a settlement arrived at between the parties.
3. Issue notice. The learned APP accepts notice on behalf of the State.
4. The petitioner, who is present in the Court and the respondents no. 2, who appeared through video conferencing have been identified by their counsel and Investigating Officer .

5. Briefly stated, the parties were known to each other, as respondent No. 2 was serving as an Inspector with the Delhi Police and was posted at Sultan Puri, Delhi, in the year 2015, where the petitioners also resided. Owing to certain misunderstandings and disputes between the parties, several complaints came to be lodged against each other, culminating in the registration of the present FIR No. 779/2015 at Police Station Sultan Puri, Delhi, for the aforesaid offences. Investigation in the matter has since been completed.

6. On a query made by this Court, respondent no. 2 who has been identified by the IO, has categorically stated that she has entered into compromise, vide Settlement Agreement dated 30.04.2019, out of his own free will and without any pressure, coercion or threat. Therefore, she has no objection if the present FIR is quashed.

7. In view of the above, that the parties have amicably resolved their differences out of their own free will, and without any coercion, no useful purpose will be served by continuing the proceedings, rather the same would create further acrimony between them. It would thus be in interest of justice to quash the abovementioned FIR and the proceedings pursuant thereto. There is no legal impediment in quashing the FIR in question.

8. Accordingly, FIR No. 779/2015, registered at Police Station Sultan Puri, Delhi, for the offences punishable under Sections 189, 419, 420, 469, 471, 500, 501, 502, 120B and 34 of the Indian Penal Code, 1860 (hereinafter referred to as the 'IPC'), along with all consequential proceedings emanating therefrom, is hereby quashed.

9. The present petition is disposed of. Pending application(s), if any, also stand(s) disposed of.
10. A copy of the order to be sent to the Trial Court for compliance and necessary action.
11. The order be uploaded on the website forthwith.
