1. Learned counsel for the plaintiff seeks to press prayer (b) to (d) against defendant no.1, which are in the following terms:

- b. Pass a decree of permanent and mandatory injunction directing the Defendants to forthwith take down, remove and disable access to the Impugned Publications, together with all mirrors, re-uploads, re-posts and re-shared thereof, from the platforms operated by Defendant Nos. 2 to 4 and from any other online or offline platform under their control, as more particularly identified by their URLs in ANNEXURE – 1 to the plaint.

- c. Pass a decree of permanent and mandatory injunction restraining the Defendants, their associates, affiliates, servants, agents, directors, partners, representatives, and all other persons acting for and on their behalf from uploading, distributing, sharing, circulating, hosting, storing, indexing, or otherwise making available the Impugned Publications, as set out in paragraph 32 of the plaint, and more particularly detailed in ANNEXURE – 1 hereto, or any other material of like tenor and effect concerning the Plaintiff and its officers, in any manner whatsoever;
- d. Pass a decree of permanent and mandatory injunction restraining Defendant No. 1, his servants, agents, representatives and all other persons acting for and on his behalf from making, publishing, posting, circulating or communicating any further unverified, unsubstantiated and ex facie defamatory statements or allegations, in any form whatsoever (including but not limited to social-media posts, comments, tweets, reposts, stories, direct messages, emails, messages on messaging applications or otherwise), concerning the Plaintiff, its parent company, its officers.
2. The other prayers are withdrawn by the plaintiff.
3. The learned counsel for defendant no.1 submits that prayer (b) & (c) already stand satisfied. He further submits that the defendant no.1 does not oppose prayer (d) as sought in the plaint. It is consequently undertaken that the defendant no.1 shall not publish any further defamatory statement or allegation, in any form whatsoever, concerning the plaintiff, its parent company, its officers, and/or its employees, and shall also refrain from repeating or re-publishing the impugned publication.

4. Learned counsel for the defendant no.1 undertakes, on instructions, that defendant No. 1 shall abide by the aforesaid statement.

5. In the circumstances, with the consent of the learned counsel for the plaintiff and the learned counsel for the defendant no.1, the present suit is decreed in terms of prayer (b) – (d), qua the defendant no.1.

6. The remaining prayers qua the other defendant/s stand withdrawn.

7. The present suit stands decreed in the above terms. All pending applications also stand disposed of.
