ORDER

% 19.08.2026

1. Applicant seeks interim bail on medical ground in case emanating from FIR No. 226/2024 dated 13.06.2024, registered at PS Jamia Nagar, for commission of offence under Section 324 IPC. Subsequently, charge-sheet has been filed for offences under Sections 307/354D/120B IPC.
2. The charges have already been ascertained and case is already at the stage of prosecution evidence.
3. Complainant has already been examined.
4. Applicant prays for interim bail for a period of two months for the reason that he has to undergo surgery.
5. The report from the Senior Medical Officer, Jail Hospital has been received and the relevant part of the abovesaid report reads as under:-

"At present, inmate patient is a case of, fissure in Ano with internal Haemorrhoids which was initially of Grade-I and now increased to Grade-III with ?migraine under follow up of RML Hospital and DDU Hospital. He is advised for Surgery (Hemorrhoidectomy) by Surgery Specialist DDU Hospital and advised for MRI brain for his persistent complaint of severe headache (Pmigraine) at RML Hospital which is scheduled on 18.08.2026 and same is planned. Inmate patient is having constant complaints of bleeding per rectum (on and off), painful defecation and severe Headache despite being provided medications.”

6. Learned counsel for complainant, however, submits that the conduct of the applicant is not above board and he may misuse the liberty, in case, he is enlarged on interim bail. He submits that his application does not talk about all the previous application which he had filed on earlier occasions, for grant of bail.

7. Heard.

8. On the last date i.e. 14.08.2026, when the matter was taken up by this Court, based on the apprehension expressed by learned counsel for complainant, the applicant was directed to file affidavit as to where would he get himself operated upon. His parokar has submitted affidavit in which he has given names of three hospitals and it is also undertaken that applicant shall abide by any condition to be imposed by the Court in this regard.

9. Keeping in mind the overall facts and circumstances of the case and in particular the abovesaid medical report, the application is allowed and applicant is, hereby, admitted to interim bail for a period of six weeks on his furnishing personal bond in a sum of Rs. 25,000/- subject to the satisfaction of learned Trial Court/Chief Judicial Magistrate/Duty Judicial Magistrate First Class with following conditions:-

- I. Surety would be local.
- II. Applicant shall not try to contact the complainant or any of the witness, directly or indirectly.
- III. He shall not leave the National Capital Territory of Delhi without prior permission of learned Trial Court.
- IV. Applicant shall furnish a mobile number to concerned IO on which he can be contacted, if required. Such number shall remain operational and functional during the period of interim bail.

V. He would also immediately send communication to the concerned IO about his admission in relation to proposed surgery.

10. The period of interim bail would be reckoned from the date of release.

11. It is made clear that if the intended surgery does not take place within the period of three weeks from the date of his release, the applicant, without any further direction from this Court, would, himself, surrender. No request for extension of interim bail shall be entertained, on any ground whatsoever.

12. The application is disposed of in aforesaid terms.

13. A copy of the order be sent to the learned Trial Court and Jail Superintended for information.

14. A copy of this order be given dasti under the signatures of the Court Master.
